Interview period: May 23 or 24, 2022, 9:30 am-12:00 pm (JST/further details, TBA)

Date and time of interviews will be scheduled at the convenience of the applicants and the interviewers.

(2) Selection methods

Acceptance to the graduate school is determined by a review of the submitted application documents and results of interview.

10. Announcement of Successful Applicants

June 17, 2022

Successful applicants' examinee numbers will be posted on the TMDU website (<http://www.tmd.ac.jp/english/>). In addition, notice will be sent to successful applicants enclosed with documents related to enrollment procedures by EMS.

11. Fees required at the time of enrollment (as of AY 2021)

Students must make arrangements to cover the following:

Admission fee: JPY 282,000

First semester tuition*: JPY 267,900 (JPY 535,800 for a full year)

*Tuition fees may be exempted based on student's academic performance and financial status. Please note that you can apply to this waiver program only after the school year begins and all students are required to pay enrollment fee and the first semester's tuition fee at the time of enrollment.

12. Others

- (1) Incomplete application documents will not be accepted, so please be careful when filling out the form and collecting the necessary documentation.
- (2) If you need special consideration and/or arrangements for studying, due to illness or extraordinary causes such as physical disability, please inform us at the earliest possible time before you make your application.
- (3) If any difference is found between actual fact and matters that you described in your application documents, there is a chance of your enrollment being revoked.
- (4) Handling of personal information
  - Personal information collected in the selection process will not be used for any purposes other than to carry out health guidance or education after admission.
  - TMDU will not disclose any personal information collected in the selection process to third parties without consent of the applicant according to the "National University Corporation Tokyo Medical and Dental University Personal Information Management Rules."
- (5) Students who expect to graduate (complete their course of study) will need to submit a certificate of graduation (course completion certificate) by September 22, 2022. Admission will be revoked if an applicant who applies under the condition of "expect to receive a bachelor's degree" is not able to attain said degree or to graduate by September 2022.

- (6) Students are advised to acquire some knowledge of Japanese culture, customs, weather, and the university system before arriving in Japan. Even though this course will be held in English, you will be required to speak some Japanese in your daily life outside the course. Therefore, we strongly advise all international students acquire some level of Japanese language proficiency before starting at TMDU.
- (7) Entrance examination and enrollment fees, as well as documents submitted at the time of application, will not be returned for any reason whatsoever. Before you submit your application, make copies of the originals for your own records.
- (8) If enrollment capacity has not been reached after an entrance examination, additional applicants may be sought. So, please either check the TMDU website or contact the Admission Section regularly.

13. E-learning study option

The Master of Public Health in Global Health (MPH) Course is designed as a classroom course requiring class attendance. However, TMDU offers an e-learning study option (i.e., learning from video-recoded lectures, which requires completion of assignment for each course and three days of schooling at TMDU in summer) for students under exceptional circumstances*.

*Exceptional circumstance is defined as “living in a remote area and having difficulty to attend classes or being a full-time employee.” In order to prove that your condition meets the exceptional circumstance, please submit “Certificate of Employment (including job description)” (for a full-time employee) and a “letter of permission from immediate supervisor at your workplace”.
